Dear ERI friends and colleagues, it's with regret that I see coming soon the end of my 3-month stay with you: time has passed too rapidly!
But, I'll try to come back soon.
In the meantime, I'd like to thank you very much for your kind welcome and support, for the fruitful scientific discussions, seminars, and the friendly atmosphere in the Institute. In particular, I am grateful to Satei Itakura-san and the whole International Cooperation Division for their highly professional and efficient help in all administrative duties.

Of course, I also thank my colleagues of the Volcanological Center and, especially, Takeshi-san, my host in ERI. I hope I could contribute usefully to their research ideas and projects. I had the chance to share with them and other colleagues from GSJ and GCRC (Tokyo Univ.) very good time in the field at Asama and Niya-kefima volcanoes! Looking forward to developing further collaborations!
